REPORT

Lecture Series on Africa by Dr. Maciel Santos, Professor, Department of History, Political and International Studies, University of Porto, Portugal

(14–17 July 2026)

The Discipline of History at the D.D. Kosambi School of Social Sciences and Behavioural Studies organised a lecture series on Africa by Dr. Maciel Santos, Professor at the Department of History, Political and International Studies, University of Porto, Portugal, from 14 to 17 July 2026. This initiative was part of the Erasmus+ Staff Teaching Mobility Programme. All lectures took place from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Seminar Hall, Faculty Block B.

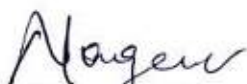

The inaugural ceremony was held on 14 July 2026 at 2:30 p.m. Dr. Parag D. Parobo, Associate Professor and coordinator, introduced the lecture series and Dr. Maciel Santos, and outlined the guidelines and expectations. The Chief Guest, Dr. Nagendra Rao, Professor of History and Dean of the D.D. Kosambi School of Social Sciences and Behavioural Studies, delivered the inaugural address. Prof. Rao highlighted Africa's importance in global history and stressed the value of international academic engagement with students and faculty.

Dr. Maciel Santos delivered lectures on the Genesis of Colonial Africa, Colonial Societies, Social Change after 1945, and the Decolonisation process. He emphasised that African history is integral to global economic, political, and social developments. Dr. Santos challenged traditional narratives that portray Africans only as passive victims, instead highlighting local agency, negotiation, and strategies under imperial rule. He argued that African colonialism is closely tied to the expansion and accumulation goals of global capitalism. Colonial administrations, taxation, and forced labour extracted capital and shaped political economies across Africa. Dr. Santos noted that Colonial Africa underwent significant changes from the late nineteenth to the mid-twentieth century. After the Berlin Conference, European powers imposed new political boundaries, economic systems, and social structures. Colonial states extracted resources and controlled labour, fundamentally altering African societies. After World War II, increased African political consciousness and global power shifts accelerated demands for independence. The decolonisation process varied by region, with some areas achieving peaceful transitions and others experiencing prolonged conflict. The legacy of colonialism continues to influence African development and remains a subject of critical historical debate.

Attendance was 34 participants on 14 July, 54 on 15 July, and 25 on 16 July. Attendees included students and faculty from the Disciplines of History, International Relations, Portuguese and French.

On 17 July, Dr. Santos participated in a special session with faculty from the D.D. Kosambi School of Social Sciences and Behavioural Studies, the Sheno Goembab School of Languages and Literature, and the School of International and Area Studies. The session, held from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Seminar Hall, Faculty Block B, focused on research collaboration, network building, securing grants for specialised research, organising international conferences, and developing joint projects and publications. Nineteen faculty members attended, representing the Disciplines of History, Sociology, Political Science, French, Portuguese, and International Relations. The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Prof. Nagendra Rao, Dean, D.D. Kosambi School of Social Sciences and Behavioural Studies, Goa University.
