11. Description of the Program/activity/event	The Women's Studies Programme of the DD Kosambi School of Social Sciences and Behavioural Studies, Goa University had organized MEAR (Making Equality a Reality) 2025 on 7th March 2025 at the Seminar Hall, Faculty Block B, Goa University from 9:00 AM to 5:30 PM. The event, themed "Accelerate Action," aims to promote equality and inspire proactive efforts toward social change. MEAR 2025 featured four significant competitions designed to engage participants creatively and intellectually. "MEAR Street Performer," invited participants to write, direct, and perform a street play based on the theme "Accelerate Actions." The plays were performed in Konkani, Hindi, Marathi, and English. The judging criteria included content and relevance to the theme, audibility and clarity, originality, and creativity, with each category scoring 20 points. "The MEAR Artist," challenges participants to express the theme through art. A canvas cloth was provided.. Copying from any source was strictly prohibited, and the decision of the judges were final. Judging criteria included originality creativity and relevance of the theme and overall message, "The Mear Reeler," invited participants to create a short reel addressing the theme. All submitted reels were screened during the event's inaugural session. Elocution competition was held around the theme and we received an overwhelming response from the participants. Dr Nistha Dessai, Priti Parab Saylee Loyekar and Sushamita Desai served as a Judges for this event. Total eight colleges from across Goa Participated in this event.

12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	MEAR 2025 successfully created a platform for raising awareness about social inequalities and inspiring action toward equality. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, artists, and social advocates, resulting in a vibrant exchange of ideas and creative expressions. The street play performances captivated the audience with their powerful messages on social justice, while the art competition showcased innovative and thought-provoking interpretations of the theme "Accelerate Action." The reel-making competition highlighted pressing social issues through impactful storytelling, leaving a lasting impression on the audience. Participants demonstrated exceptional creativity, originality, and clarity in conveying their messages, which were highly appreciated by the judges and the attendees. The event also fostered teamwork and collaboration, as participants worked together to craft meaningful content. MEAR 2025 strengthened community engagement by bringing together individuals from diverse backgrounds and encouraging dialogue on social change. The event successfully inspired participants and the audience to reflect on societal challenges and motivated them to take proactive steps toward building a more equitable and just society.
