10. The objectives of the Program/activity/event	To celebrate and promote the legacy of Śārṅgadēva and Indian classical performing arts traditions. To provide a platform for scholarly discussions on music, dance, and cultural studies. To encourage interdisciplinary understanding of Indian performing arts and knowledge systems. To offer practical learning through masterclasses and lecture-demonstrations. To foster appreciation and engagement among students, researchers, and art enthusiasts.
11. Description of the Program/activity/event	The Directorate of Visiting Research Professors Programme (D-VRPP), Goa University, in collaboration with Mahagami Arts Research Foundation and partner institutions, organized the 20th edition of Śārṅgadēva Samāroha on 25th and 26th March 2026 at the Institute Menezes Braganza, Panaji. The event commemorated the legacy of the 13th-century musicologist Śārṅgadēva, author of the Sangita Ratnakara, a foundational text in Indian music and dance traditions. The two-day programme included seminars, lecture-demonstrations, masterclasses, and classical dance performances. The Śārṅgadēva Prasang (Seminar & Lecture Demonstration) featured scholarly presentations on classical dance and music traditions. The Śārṅgadēva Spandan Master Class provided hands-on training in dance forms such as Mohiniyattam, Kathak, Bharatanatyam, and Odissi. The evening segment, Śārṅgadēva Samāroha Dance Festival, showcased performances by eminent artists, reflecting the richness and diversity of Indian classical traditions. The programme successfully created a platform for dialogue, research exchange, and artistic expression, with active participation from faculty members, students, and external participants.

12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	Enhanced understanding of Indian classical music and dance traditions. Strengthened interdisciplinary perspectives on performing arts. Provided practical exposure through masterclasses and demonstrations. Encouraged research and academic engagement in cultural studies. Promoted appreciation of India's cultural heritage.
13. Enclosures with report	Photos, Attendance of participants, Bio Data of resource person.
