Report on One Day Workshop on 'Perspectives in Historical Research and Heritage'.

A the One-day Workshop was organized by Discipline of History, D.D. Kosambi School of Social Sciences and Behavioural Studies in collaboration with Directorate of Museums, Government of Goa titled 'Perspectives in Historical Research and Heritage Studies' on 07 August 2026, at 10:00 a.m. at Seminar Hall, Faculty Block B, Goa University. Welcome address for the workshop was given by Prof. Nagendra Rao, Dean, D.D. Kosambi School of Social Sciences and Behavioural Studies, Goa University. Inaugural function began with lighting of the lamp and floral welcome to the dignitaries. Introduction of the workshop by Dr. Vasu Usapkar, Director, Directorate of Museums, Government of Goa. Chief Guest for the workshop was Prof. Sunder N. Dhuri, Registrar, Goa University. Vote of thanks was given by Dr. Nalini Naik, Coordinator/Programme Director, History Discipline, D.D. Kosambi School of Social Sciences and Behavioural Studies, Goa University.

Session I was on the topic 'Material Culture & Field Methods in Heritage Studies' by Dr. Varad Sabnis, Archaeologist. Session II was on the topic 'Decolonising Heritage Management: Lessons from Global Public Archaeology for India's Built History' by Dr. S. Arun Reddy, Regional Director, Regional Centre Goa, Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts (IGNCA), Ministry of Culture, Government of India. Session III was on the topic 'Oral Folklore of Goa in unearthing History & Heritage' by Shri Rajendra Kerkar, Environmentalist & Researcher. Total number of students attended were 96, faculty attended were 13 and other interested participants were 07.

The objectives of the workshop:

- To introduce students to diverse approaches to historical research and heritage studies, develop their ability to critically engage with sources and interpretations, and encourage them to view history and heritage as dynamic, contested, and socially constructed fields of inquiry.

- To identify and critically evaluate historical sources, including archival records, oral histories, material remains, visual sources, and digital resources.
- To introduce students to heritage studies by examining tangible and intangible heritage and the institutions and practices involved in heritage conservation.
- To encourage interdisciplinary perspectives by connecting historical research with archaeology, anthropology, sociology, art history, architecture, and cultural studies.

Key outcomes of the workshop:

- The workshop aimed to develop students' understanding of historical research and heritage studies while introducing them to practical approaches for engaging with the past.
- Participants were familiarized with the basic methods of historical inquiry, including identifying research questions, examining evidence, and evaluating sources critically.
- The workshop highlighted how history and heritage studies draw upon disciplines such as archaeology, anthropology, sociology, geography, literature, and art history.
- Students developed a broader understanding of tangible and intangible heritage and the importance of documenting, preserving, and interpreting cultural heritage.
- The workshop motivated students to explore local histories, cultural traditions, monuments, archives, and community heritage as potential areas of academic research.

Enclosed with the report are Geo-tag photos, Brochure, Schedule of workshop and Attendance of students/faculty/external participants.
