The objectives	To explore the literary legacy of Portuguese modernist Fernando Pessoa, his engagement with Eastern philosophical traditions, and the significance of his heteronyms. The seminar also aimed to examine innovative approaches to literary pedagogy and foster interdisciplinary dialogue through scholarly presentations, multilingual poetry readings, and artistic performances.

Description of the Activity	Key highlights included scholarly presentations on Fernando Pessoa's heteronyms, philosophical multiplicity, pseudonymity, and connections with Indian literary traditions; a multilingual poetry reading in six languages; a staged reading of Ode Marítima by Portuguese actor Manuel Wiborg, accompanied by a Bharatanatyam performance by Impana Kulkarni; student engagement through the Pessoa board game; and the launch of the digital game Unsigned (Sem Assinatura).
Benefit/Key outcome of the event in terms of learning/skills/knowledge	The seminar deepened engagement with Pessoa's literary works and heteronyms, encouraged dialogue between Portuguese literature and Indian philosophical traditions, and highlighted innovative, multilingual, and performance-based approaches to literary learning. It promoted interdisciplinary exchange and demonstrated new possibilities for teaching and engaging with literature.
